

At the library

Tricky words

Library

children

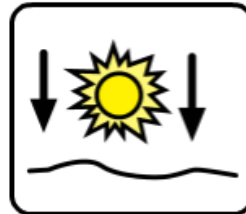

Manchester

morning

people

afternoon

Once there was a girl called Kate.
Kate lives in Manchester.

Kate works at the library

Kate meets lots of people at the library.
Kate likes to help these people.

In the morning Kate must clean the library using a cloth.

Kate helps people to find books to take home.

To take a book home for 1 week you must scan your library card at the desk.

In the afternoon Kate likes reading books to school children.

Kate must clean the library and put all the books away before going home.