This is the story of a tiny snail and a great big, blue whale. One day, the snail sat on a rock and sighed. “The sea is deep and the world is wide! How I long to sail” said the snail.

What

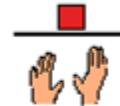

does

the snail

want

to do?

A big blue whale came one night when the sea was high and the stars were bright. The snail crawled on to the whale's tail and sailed across the sea.

Did the whale arrive in the night or day?

The sea carried the whale, the snail on it's tail to towering icebergs.

To far off lands, with fiery mountains and golden sands.

What

did

the

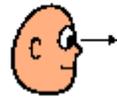

whale

and

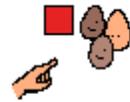

snail

see

on their journey?

But then one day, they lost their way. The whale was stuck on the sand, he was sad and hurt on the land.

Why

was the whale

sad?

The snail was small.
He started to crawl.
He had a plan. "I must
not fail" said the snail.
He went to get help
from the children at school.

The children and fireman dug a big pool, squirting and spraying to keep the whale cool.

The tide came into the bay and everyone shouted "hooray" as the whale and snail travelled safely away.

Who helped to rescue the whale?

Read the sentences
and colour the picture.

1. My shorts have green spots.
2. My t-shirt is green and blue.
3. My hat is yellow and blue.
4. My beach ball is purple and blue.
5. My sunglasses are black and white.
6. I am next to a yellow flower.
