myths and legends

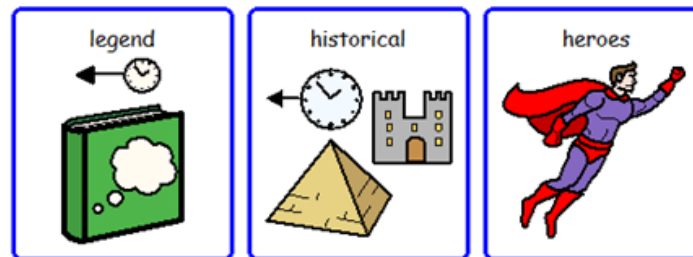

Myths and Legends are very old stories. They are often magical.

Myths feature Gods and magical creatures.

Legends are often also magical but may be based on a real historical people. They feature brave heroes.

Perseus and Medusa

A myth from Ancient Greece

Last week we read this myth.

Theseus and the Minotaur

King Minos lived in Crete. He had everything he wanted but got bored and attacked Athens.

The King of Athens wanted the attacks to stop! He promised to send Minos 7 boys and 7 girls to be eaten by the Minotaur.

The Minotaur was a scary monster that was half man half bull.

It was time to go. Everyone was very sad.

Prince Theseus wanted to go and kill the Minotaur to save the children.

Prince Theseus sailed to Crete where King Minos lived.

Theseus met King Minos and the Princess Ariadne.

Dear Theseus,
I am a beautiful princess as you probably noticed the moment you saw me.
I am also very bored of my life here. Without my help the Minotaur will surely eat you. I know how to save your life. If I help you kill the Minotaur, you must promise to take me away from this island. If you are interested in this deal, meet me by the gate to the maze in one hour.
Yours truly,
Ariadne

The princess wanted to help Theseus.

Ariadne gave Theseus a sword and string.

The string was to find his way back in the maze where the minotaur lived.
The sword was to kill it!

Theseus took the sword and string into the maze.

Theseus found the monster and killed him!
He used the string to find his way out.

Princess Ariadne snuck away with Theseus - he had promised to help her leave.

Ariadne fell asleep when they stopped on a different island. Theseus left her there!
