

King Arthur

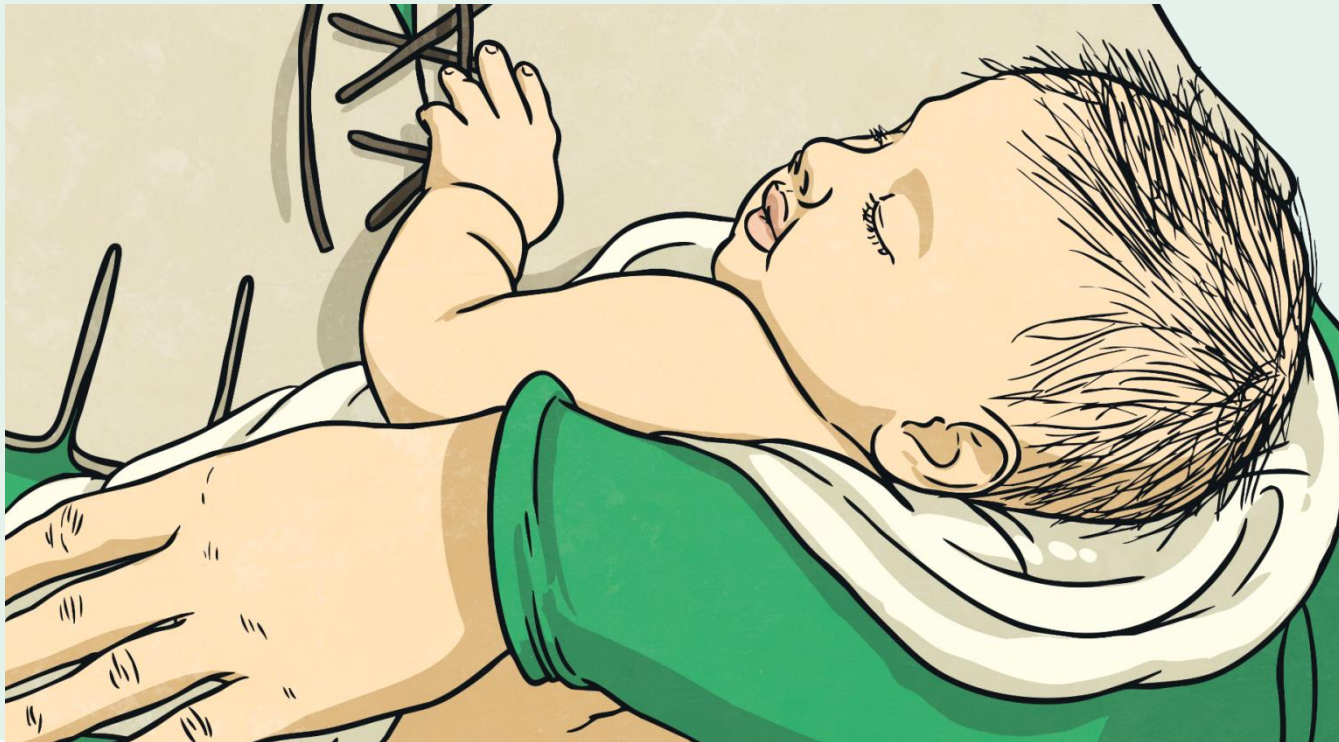

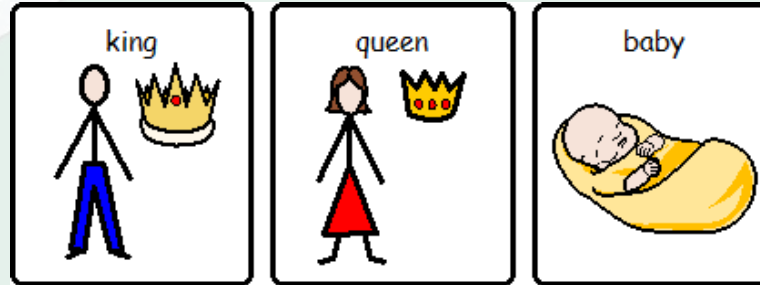

King Uther was in love with Igraine of Cornwall, but he wasn't allowed to marry her.

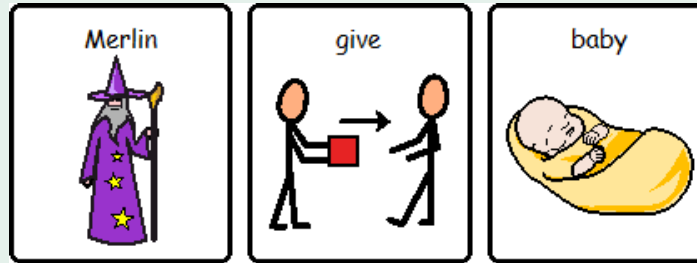

A magician named Merlin came forward and said he would help Uther marry Igraine, but only if they gave him their first born son.

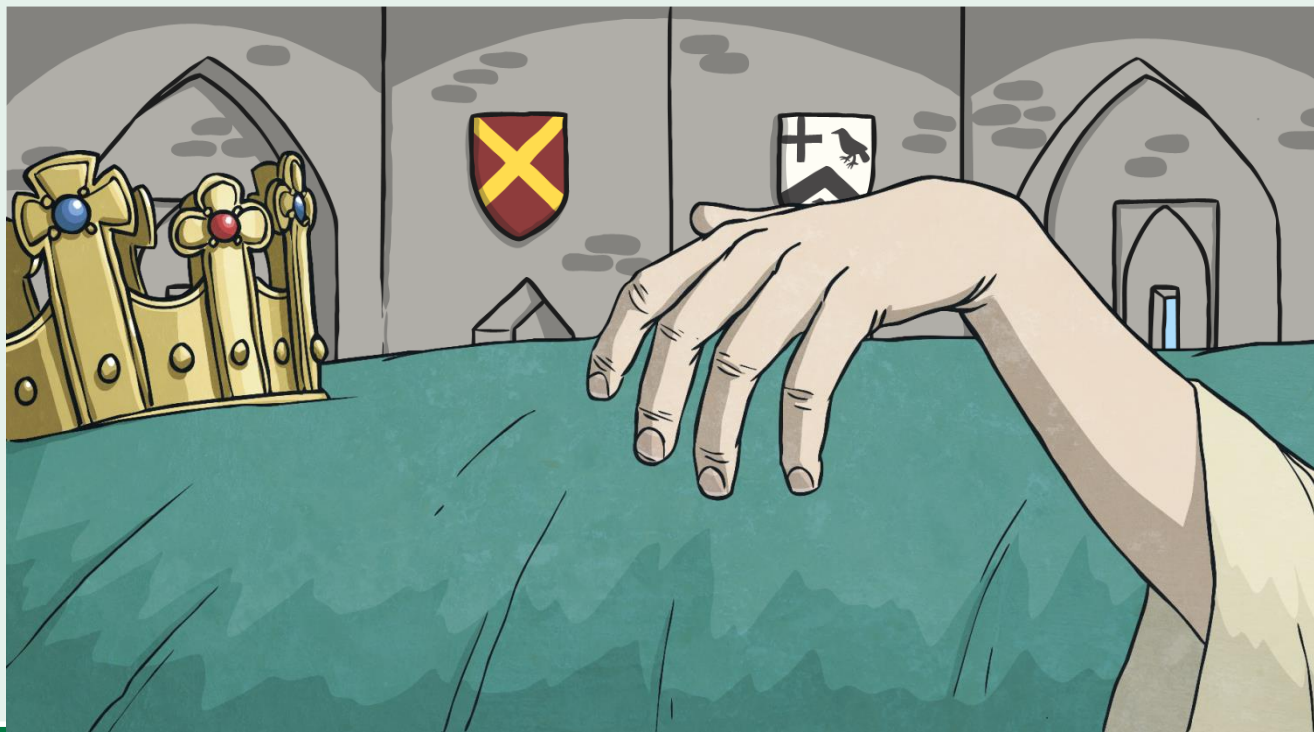

Uther and Igraine were married. They had a son and named him Arthur.

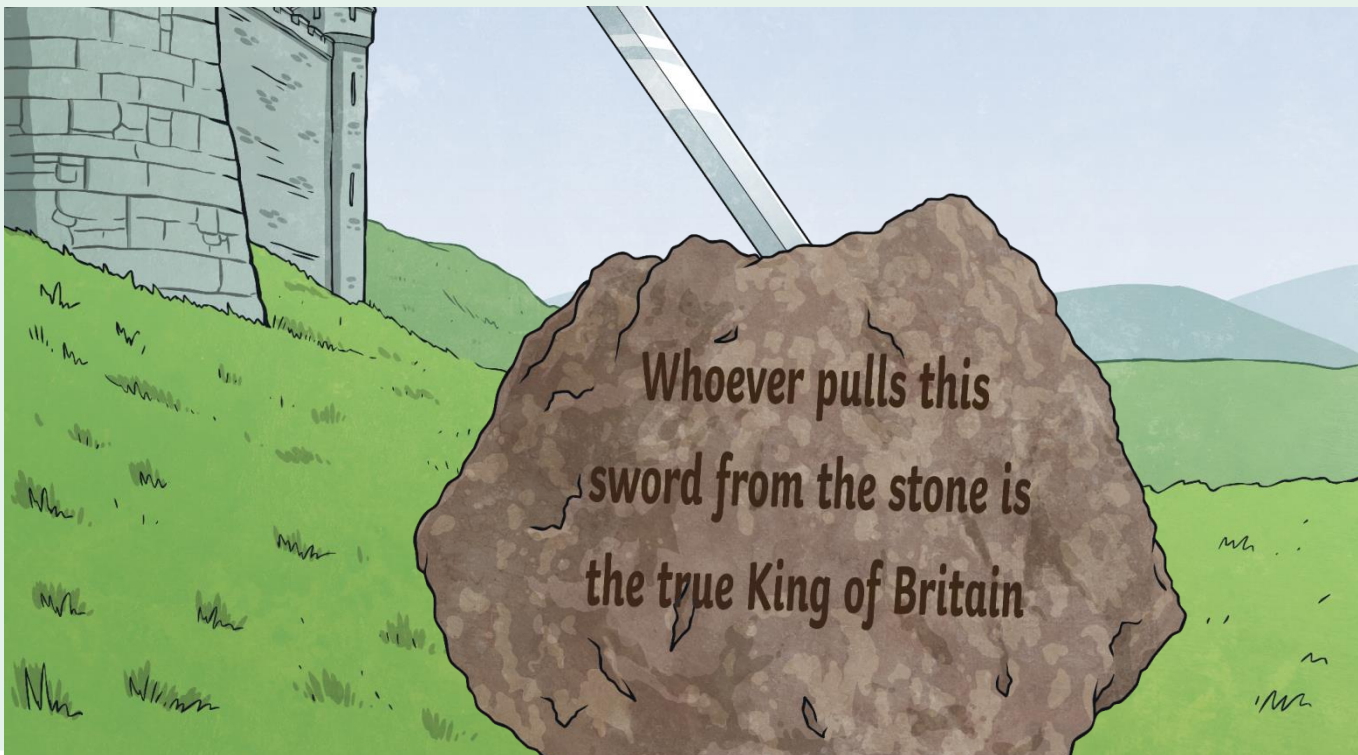

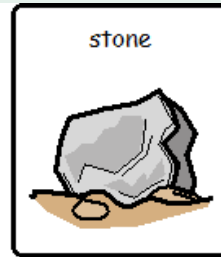

Merlin took Arthur, and gave him to Sir Ector and his family.

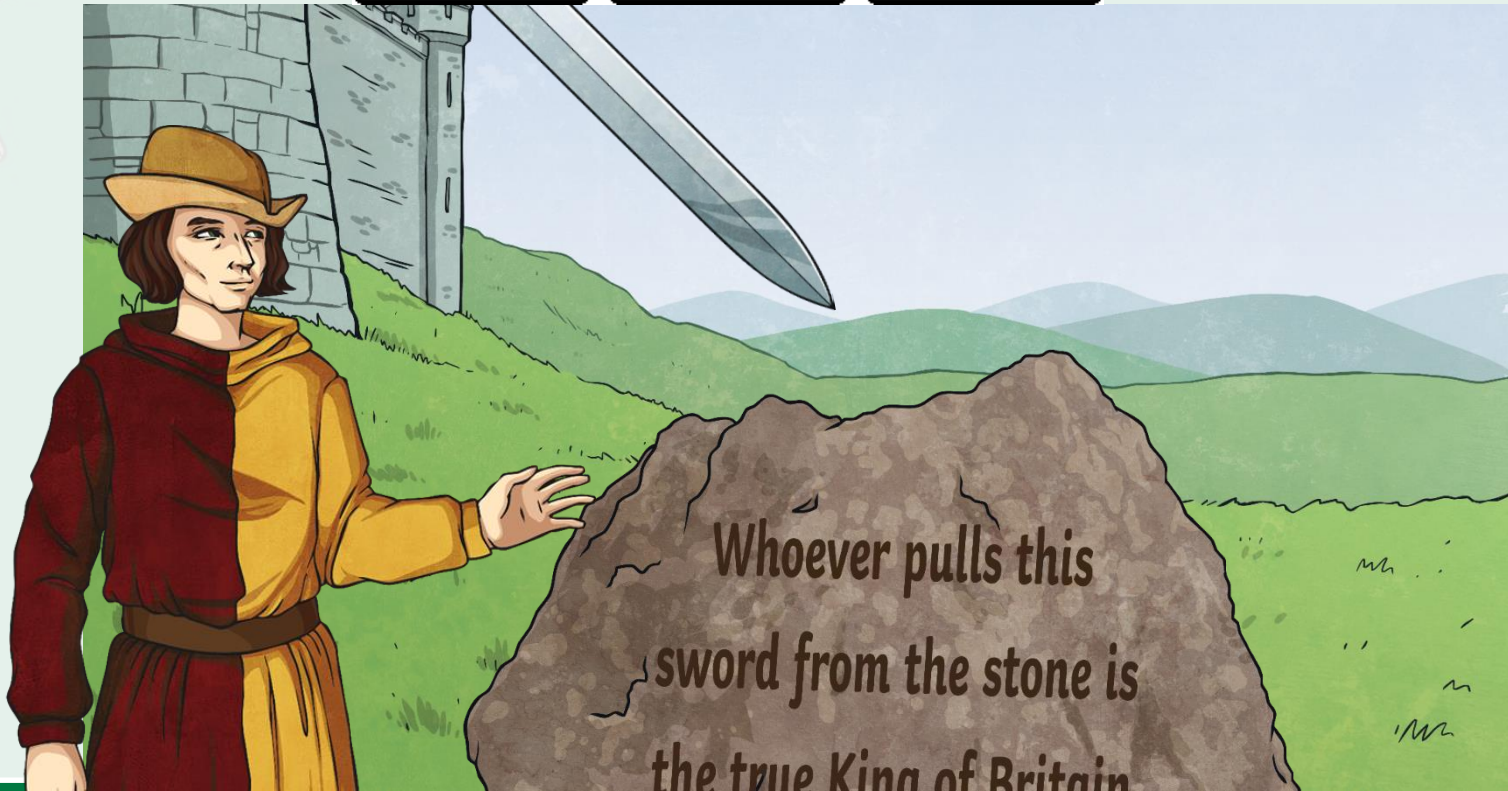

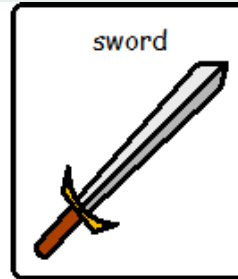

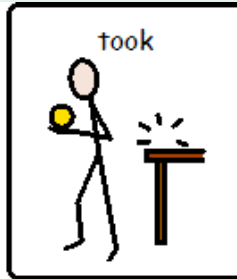

Long after, King Uther fell ill and died.

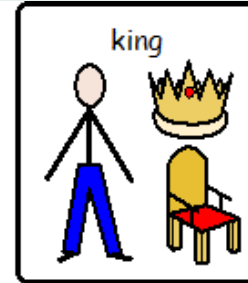

A magical stone appeared which said "Whoever pulls this sword from the stone is the true King of Britain" No one could pull the sword out.

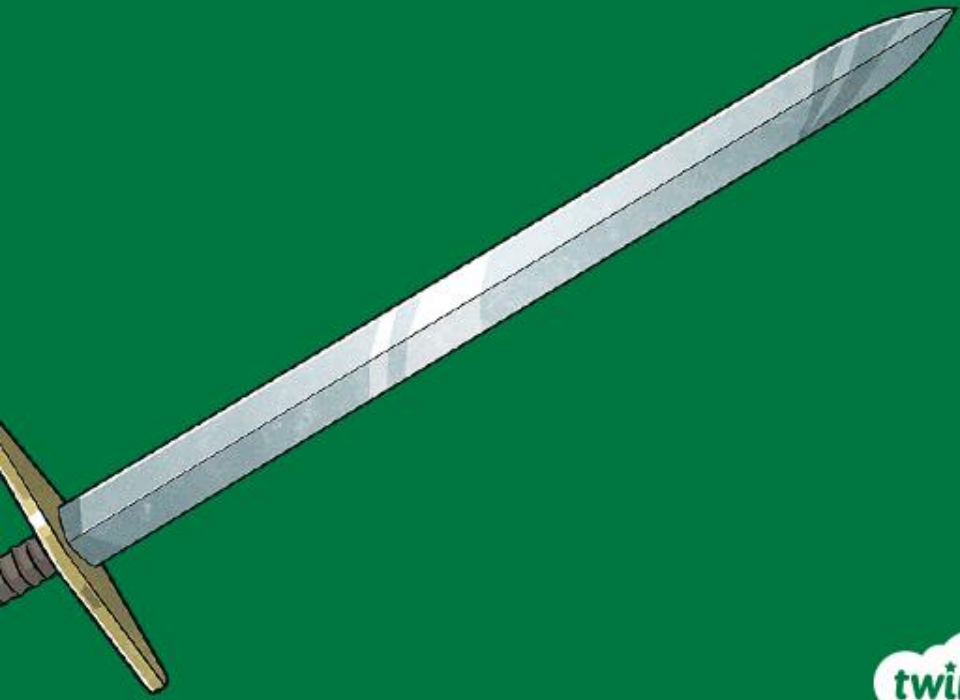

Arthur pulled the sword out of the stone.

Arthur was crowned and became one of the best kings Britain has ever known.

twinkl

