

Heaton Park Community Allotment

The students carry out a period of volunteering work at the Incredible Edible Heaton Park Community allotment project.

Here they learn how to grow, look after and harvest fruit and vegetables. The fruit and vegetables are then used in the Heaton Park Stables Café and at the Eagle and Child Pub in Ramsbottom.

The students learn many valuable skills for the work place including team work, communication and independence.