KS5 English Skills Employment - Identifying and describing skills & roles

| Subject curriculum intent: | Students will use speaking and listening, reading and listening skills in every lesson. Students will discuss skills and tasks and use role play / hot seating to explore the requirements of different jobs Students will identify and use features that writers use to engage and interest the reader (language, structure and form e.g. specific language and bullet points etc). They will sequence texts which are logical Students will create and shape their own texts, write texts linked to job roles, and organise information following the structure of a personal statement. Students will develop understanding of spelling, punctuation and grammar. | | | | |
|--|--|---|--|--|--|
| Intent for this topic: | In this unit students will develop their understanding of how English is used to describe people and job roles. Students will develop their understanding of how individuals and organisations describe and promote themselves and use language to inform, promote and persuade through a range of media. Student will use this knowledge to develop appropriate skills to identify their own skills and abilities and match them to the person specifications for different journless. Students will use this knowledge to develop appropriate skills to identify the skills, abilities and personalities of personnel who work with them. | | | | |
| | Students will identify descriptive and persuasive detail in their reading, watching and listening and produce presentations that intend to describ promote themselves. Students will develop their understanding of how writers and speakers use the rules of grammar and punctuation to help to persuand inform the reader / listener and they will practise their skills in using their existing knowledge of grammar and punctuation. Students will revisit and build upon skills and knowledge developed previously in presenting medical information and exploring instructions. | | | | |
| | Key Features o | f Text Tyne | | | |
| | Audience | Someone businesses or students will try to inform and influence | | | |
| | Purpose | To promote a business to recruit new staff / to promote the student in order to obtain a job | | | |
| | Structure | Logical order, series of points supporting particular viewpoint, paragraphs with headings | | | |
| | Language | Personal and direct, formal. Opinions presented as facts e.g. the best company to work for in Manchester. | | | |
| | Featurs | Use of imperative. Emotive language. Language that sounds good, incl slogans. Weasel words /emotive language designed to deceive/give best impression | | | |
| | Suggested Texts: Job advertisements, e.g. MCC Job vacancies, Skills description National Careers Service | | | | |
| Key vocabulary taught within this topic: | Vocabulary revisited: Non fiction, describe, inform, persuade, exaggerate, sequence, Topic specific vocabulary: Letter, business card, job advertisement, job application, job description, person specification, interview, directions, how to find us, skills, abilities experience. | | | | |
| Links to other subjects: | ICT - Researchin RRS Articles: Th | or and hot seating activities or information and presenting written work. The seating activities or information about the businesses drafting, editing and presenting written work. The seat of the child. Education must develop every child's personality, ies to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures, ent. | | | |

Term: Summer 2023

| Wks | Stage of Talk for Writing Approach | Aim | Main activity |
|----------|---|---|---|
| Wks 1-4 | Immersion & imitation | Students learn and internalise model text. Students identify transferable ideas and structures | Cold Task / Have a Go Task - Use an interesting stimulus/ starting point with minimal teaching and students to write a Personal Statement Immersion -explore business and job descriptions, people's profiles, roles etc , build up word bank of useful words and persuasive language, Tune into the text: persuasion game, weasel word game, make it positive etc Focus on audience, purpose, structure, language features of persuasive writing. Students identify and arrange key features of a personal statement Students warm up to the text/ embed words/phrases and grammar, Introduce model text of a personal statement- text map and learn text. Students internalise model text using text map Students read as a reader -vocabulary & comprehension work Students read as a writer - Box up model text, analyse features etc |
| Wks 5-8 | Innovation | Students use ideas and structures Students co- construct new versions of original text with support | Students explore and rewrite a personal statement for a third person Shared writing to innovate the model Students box up a new version of the model text - creative hook, key headings and information. Students amend / innovate key elements Students begin to describe new skills and abilities Use word bank and structure of original text Use mind map to generate and record different ideas. and Use Narrative Therapy & Colourful Semantics to revise model text |
| Wks 9-12 | Invention / Independent application | Students create original texts as independently as possible | Students use structure of a personal statement Students create own personal statement Use word bank and structure of original and innovated text Use mind map to generate and record different ideas. Students plan, review, edit and revise their writing. Use Narrative Therapy & Colourful Semantics to create new text Hot Task / Show us what you have learnt - An independent task on a similar type of writing |

| specific knowledge Communication Skills. Students know simple adjectives used to describe appearance. Students know the meaning of simple questions: Who? What? Where? How to communicate ideas effectively. How to respond to others appropriately How to respond to others appropriately Students know the words used to describe job roles Students know the words used to describe job roles In key instructions from staff in role play activities. Students know whether a question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is oben and needs a full answer. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the words used to describe job roles Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the to respond to others appropriately Students know the pople use and interests. Students know the words used to describe job roles and skills. Students know the to respond to others appropriately Students know the pople use and interests. Students know the people use and interests. Students know the people use and skills. Students know why that people use and interests. Students know why that people use and interests. Students know why that people use and interests. Students know why they should practise good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know how people form expendence. Students know why they should practise good listening during role play activities. Students know how to frame questions to goin different information of key differences between spoken and reuses for oneswer. Students know whether a question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is open and needs a full answer. Students know that they examples of professional language, terms | , | OU WTE1 | OU Entry Level 1 | OU Entry Level 2 | OU Entry Level 3 | OU Level 1 |
|--|----------------|--------------------------|--------------------------------|----------------------------------|--|-------------------------------|
| Subject specific knowledge Students know some key concepts and ideas. Students know the words used in key instructions from staff in role play activities. | Key learning: | mmunication skills- Empl | loyment - identifying and de | escribing job skills and roles | | |
| knowledge Communication Skills. How to communicate ideas effectively. How to respond to others appropriately How to others appropriately Final time in role play activities. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know whether a question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is open and needs a full answer. Students know that they sold is an adversa and sentence structures. Students know that they adverting involves looking at the person adversa and sentence structures. Students know that they need question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is open and needs a full answer. Students know that they sold is a question is closed and only needs a yes / no answer. Students know whether a question is open and needs a full answer. Students know that they sold is a question is oben and needs a full answer. Students know that they sold is a question is oben and needs a full answer. Students know that they sold is a question is oben and needs a full answer. Students know that they need adjectives used to describe adjectives used to describe adjectives used to describe adjectives used to describe adjectives used to | Subject | idents know some key | Students know the words used | Students know three or more | Students know if a | Students know a number |
| Students know simple adjectives used to describe appearance. Students know the meaning of simple questions: Who? What? Where? Students know the names of experance. Students know the names of a others appropriately Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know what turning Students know what turning Students know who people feel when they do not Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how people Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain Students know how to frame questions to g | specific | cepts and ideas. i | in key instructions from staff | good communication qualities. | situation is in a | of key differences |
| Students know simple adjectives used to describe appearance. Students know the meaning of simple questions: Who? What? Where? Students know the names of key job roles and skills. How to respond to others appropriately Propriately Students know the language used to describe job roles and skills. Students know the language used to describe appearance. Students know the names of key job roles and skills. Students know the names of key job roles and skills. Students know the names of language used to describe appearance. Students know simple adjectives used to describe adject | | i | in role play activities. | | professional context or a | between spoken and |
| A skills. How to communicate ideas effectively. How to respond to others appropriately Description of simple questions. Students know the meaning of simple questions: Who? What? Where? Students know the names of key job roles and skills. How to respond to others appropriately Description of simple questions: Who? Students know simple adjectives used to describe appearance. Students know the names of key job roles and skills. How to respond to others appropriately Students know the words used to describe and interests. Students know the meaning of simple questions: Who? What? Where? Students know in the names of key job roles and skills. Students know the names of indental language, terms or address and sentence structures. Students know that they should stand or sit with their body towards the person they are talking to and turn their face towards the other person. Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know how people frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information |  | | | | less formal context. | written language used to |
| Skills. Students know the meaning of simple questions: Who? communicate ideas effectively. How to respond to others appropriately Students know the language used to describe and interests. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain develop understand question is open and needs a full answer. Students know that they activities Students know thethey are talking to and turn their face towards the other p | Communication | _ | · | · · | | describe job roles and |
| How to communicate ideas effectively. Students know the names of key job roles and skills. How to respond to others appropriately Students know the words used to describe and interests. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that turning Students know whether a question is open and needs a full answer. Students know whether a question is open and needs a full answer. Students know that they should stand or sit with their body towards the person they are talking to and turn their face towards the other person. Students know why they should practise good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know who to frame open and closed questions in discussions about job roles and skills. Students know how to frame open and closed questions to gain different information |   | | | needs a yes / no answer. | | skills. |
| How to communicate ideas effectively. How to respond to others appropriately Students know the words used to describe hobbies and interests. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking durring role play activities. Students know how people feel when they do not Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information | JKIII3. | | situations. | | | |
| communicate ideas effectively. What? Where? Students know the names of key job roles and skills. How to respond to others appropriately Students know the words used to describe hobbies and interests. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know that they should stand or sit with their body towards the person their obody towards the person their face towards the other person. Students know that they adjust their tone/v of voice in different their face towards the other person. Students know that they adjust their tone/v of voice in different their face towards the other person. Students know that they adjust the person dadress and sentence structures. Students know that they adjust the person address and sentence structures. Students know that they adjust the person address and sentence and evamples of informal language, terms or address and sentence structures. Students know that they adjust the person they are talking to and turn their face towards the other person. Students know that they adjust the person their devamples of informal language, terms or address and sentence structures. Students know that they adjust the person their devamples of informal language, terms or address and sentence structures. Students know that they should practise good listenis in person. Students know that they adjust the person address and sentence str | l law ta | | | | 3 3 . | Students know a range of |
| ideas effectively. How to respond to others appropriately Students know the words used to describe hobbies and interests. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know that turning Students know that they should stand or sit with their body towards the person they are talking to and turn their face towards the other person. Students know why they should practise good listening during role play activities. Students know how people play activities. Students know that turning Students know who to frame questions to gain different information | | • • | • | * | | |
| Effectively. How to respond to others appropriately Students know the words used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know that turning Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know why they should practise good listening during role play activities. Students know why they should practise good listening during role play activities. Students know how people frame questions to gain different information | | | • | full answer. | structures. | |
| of key job roles and skills. How to respond to others appropriately of key job roles and skills. Students know the words used to describe hobbies and interests. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know the names of a range of job roles and skills. Students know when the person they are talking to and turn their face towards the other person. Students know why they should practise good listening during role play activities. Students know how to frame questions to gain different information Students know how to frame questions to gain different information | | | appearance. | Charles de les aux de ant de aux | Charlente la sur asses | Job skills and roles. |
| How to respond to others appropriately Students know the words used to describe hobbies and interests. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know how people play activities. Students know how people frame questions to gain different information Students know how people frame questions to gain different information | effectively. | | Chudanha lanan hlaa namaa af a | | | Charlente la complete |
| Students know the words used to describe hobbies and interests. Students know the words used to describe hobbies and interests. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the person speaking during role play activities. | | | | | | |
| used to describe hobbies and interests. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know the listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know that turning Students know that people use names to get people's attention. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know why they should practise good listening during role play activities. Students know how people feel when they do not Students know how people feel when they do not Students know how people feel when they do not Students know how to frame questions to gain different information | How to respond | | range of Job roles and skills. | | | |
| and interests. Inames to get people's attention. Inames to get people atten | to others | | Students know that neanly use | | | 1 1 |
| attention. Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know why they should practise good listening during role play activities. Students know why they should practise good listening during role play activities. Students know why they should practise good listening during role play activities. Students know how to frame open and closed questions in discussions about job roles and skills. Students know how to frame questions to gain different information | appropriately | | | | 311 de la les. | _ |
| Students know the language used to describe job roles Students know that good job roles Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know that turning Students know why they should practise good listening during role play activities. | | | | per 3011. | Students know how to | _ |
| language used to describe job roles Students know that good listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know that turning Students know that turning Students know that turning Students know that turning Students know to feel when they do not Students know during role play activities. Students know to feel when they do not Students know to different information Students know how sequences their ide logically. Students know to feel when they do not Students know different information Students know to different information Students kno | | | Q. 7.5 | Students know why they | | and skins. |
| job roles listening involves looking at the person speaking during role play activities. Students know how people Students know that turning Students know to play activities Students know to people Students know to people Students know that turning Students know to people Students know to people Students know to people Students know to people Students know to people Students know to people Students know to people Students know to people Students know to people Students know to people Students know to people Students know to people | | | Students know that good | • • • | • | Students know how to |
| person speaking during role play activities play activities. Students know how people frame questions to gain Students know that turning feel when they do not different information | | - | | , , | • | sequences their ideas |
| play activities. Students know how people frame questions to gain Students know that turning feel when they do not different information | | | | | , and the second se | logically. |
| Students know that turning feel when they do not different information | | , | | | Students know how to | |
| | | | | Students know how people | frame questions to gain | |
| your back on a person who is practice and listening skills about job roles and skills | |   | Students know that turning | feel when they do not | different information | |
| your buck on a person who is practise good histering skills about job toles and skills | |) | your back on a person who is | practise good listening skills | about job roles and skills | |
| speaking is not positive during role play activities. In a range of formal and | | 5 | speaking is not positive | during role play activities. | in a range of formal and | |
| communication behaviour informal contexts. | | | communication behaviour | | informal contexts. | |
| Students know that eye | | | | • | | |
| contact is important in Students know how to use | | | | • | | |
| communicating with others. mind maps to inform their | | | | communicating with others. | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · | |
| planning. | | | | 6 | planning. | |
| Students know that | | | | | Charles to an about the | |
| difficulties in communication Students know that they | | | | | • | |
| can arise by not maintaining need to adapt their | | | | - | • | |
| eye contact when it is communication style to appropriate. match the context. | | | | * | | |
| appropriate. match the context. | | | | арргоргате. | murch the context. | |
| Students know how to | | | | | Students know how to | |
| describe what constitutes | | | | | | |

| | | | Students know the reasons why good listening is important Students know how not listening impacts communication. | good body language in a range of work related settings. Students know how to adapt their communication method to suit each job role in the workplace. | |
|--------------------------|--|---|---|--|---|
| Subject | Students are able to | Students are able to follow | Students are able to | Students are able to | Students are able to |
| | combine two or three key | verbal or visual prompts to | communicate using one or | identify if certain | identify at least 5 |
| specific skills | ideas and concepts. | carry out actions in role play | two good communication | communication skills are | characteristics of spoken |
| C | , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , | activities. | qualities when joining in with | appropriate to the | language used to |
| Communication | Students are able to use | | different types of group | context. | communicate about job |
| Skills. | signs, switches, symbols or | Students are able to follow | activities. | | skills and roles. |
| I Iam da | words to answer simple | verbal or visual prompts to | | Students are able to use | |
| How to | questions from a choice of | speak, sign, use a switch or | Students are able to | professional language, | Students are able to |
| communicate | 3. | symbols in role play activities. | communicate using three or | terms of address and | identify at least 5 |
| ideas | Students are able to use | Students are able to use signs, | more good communication qualities when joining in with | sentence structure in formal job enquiries | characteristics of written language used to |
| effectively. | signs, switches, symbols or | switches, symbols or words to | different types of group | interviews and workplace | communicate about job |
| Haw to nearend | words to describe what a | describe what they look like. | activities. | experience. | skills and roles |
| How to respond to others | person looks like. | | | | |
| | · | Students are able to use signs, | Students are able to stand | Students are able to use | Students are able to use a |
| appropriately | Students are able to use | switches, symbols or words to | or sit with their body | informal language, terms | range of suitable questions |
| | signs, switches, symbols or | identify and describe people | towards the person they are | of address and sentence | to develop understanding |
| | words to describe what | who are important to them. | talking to. | structures in less formal | of job skills and roles. |
| | role or job a person has. | Chalanta and the transfer | Charles to the test to the | situations | Ctudouta una abla ta |
| | Students are able to use | Students are able to use signs, switches, symbols or words to | Students are able to turn their face towards the | Students are able to | Students are able to identify at least 5 |
| | signs, switches, symbols or | describe their favourite | person they are talking to. | apply their understanding | differences between |
| | words to describe what | leisure activities and pastimes. | person mey are raining to. | of different skillsets to | spoken and written |
| | their favourite lesson, | μ | Students are able to answer | allocate roles to others in | language about job skills |
| | colour or class activity | Students are able to use single | a closed question with a yes / | a group role play about | and roles. |
| | from a choice of three. | words to answer a range of | no answer or single word | job roles. | |
| | Chalanta and dilata | simple questions about | answer. | | Students are able to |
| | Students are able to use signs, switches, symbols or | themselves and their skills. | Children and III I | Students are able to use | increase the volume of |
| | words to describe a hobby | Students and able to use single | Students are able to answer open questions with full | basic planning strategies | their voice to speak loudly |
| | or leisure interest/ | Students are able to use single words to answer a range of | answers using short phrases. | like mind maps to develop a role play about job roles | and clearly in formal settings /situations |
| | activity. | simple questions about other | answers using short pril uses. | and skills. | associated with job roles |
| | • | people and their job roles. | | | and skills. |

Students are able to use their chosen method of communication to ask simple questions in a variety of discussions which are led by a member of staff and/or peer.

Students are able to use their chosen method of communication to answer simple questions in a variety of discussions which are led by a member of staff and/or peer.

Students are able to use their chosen method of communication to make comments in a variety of discussions which are led by a member of staff and/or peer.

Students are able to ask for appropriate items linked to a situation.

Students are able to ask for a pen to write, or glue to attach a symbol.

Students are able to ask for a camera or ipad to take a photo.

Students are able to use single words to answer a range of simple questions about different jobs and the skills required.

Students are able to briefly look at the speaker when they hear their name.

Students are able to briefly look at the speaker when being addressed.

Students are able to look at the speaker for the whole duration of a question or statement.

Students are able to look at the person speaking during role play activities

Students are able to smile and nod whilst someone else speaks in a role play activity.

Students are able to identify when people are not demonstrating good listening skills in role play activities.

Students are able to recognise when eye contact is needed and describe some communication difficulties caused by not using eye contact in a variety of situations.

Students are able to identify reasons why gpod listening is important.

Students are able to describe why good listening is important

Students are able to describe the impact of not listening.

Students are able to demonstrate effective listening in a role play activity.

Students are able to take an independent role in role play activities.

Students are able to participate independently in a role play activity.

Students are able to ask open and closed questions to adults and peers in a range of situations.

Students are able to use a range of questions to elicit different information about job roles and skills in a range of formal and informal contexts.

Students are able to use a formal communication style in a professional context.

Students are able to use an informal communication style in a social context.

Students are able to demonstrate good body language in a range of work related settings

Students are able to recognise not all communication methods fit each role in the work place

Students are able to recognise where and when communication methods need to be adapted depending on role.

Students are able to adopt an appropriate tone of voice to speak clearly and respectfully in formal settings /situations associated with job roles and skills.

Students are able to adjust their tone/volume of voice in formal and informal different settings/situations associated with job roles and skills.

Students are able to communicate their ideas/thoughts in a clear and logical manner.

| | OU WTE1 | OU Entry Level 1 | OU Entry Level 2 | OU Entry Level 3 | OU Level 1 |
|------------------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|
| Key Learning- | Reading - Employment - | identifying and describing job | | | |
| Subject specific knowledge Reading | Students know which way to hold a book or brochure and to turn the pages one at a time, starting from the front cover. Students know that text flows on a page from left to right and from top to bottom of a column or page. Students know that they should begin reading at the top of a page and at the start of each sentence. Students know at least 20 familiar symbols and/or words used to describe themselves or key characteristics of job roles and skills. Students know certain objects of reference with people, jobs or skills. Students know the meaning of key words or symbols associated with people, jobs or skills. | Students know at least 5 key signs in the workplace e.g. Staffroom, Toilets, Reception, Emergency Exit, Store room etc Students know key words or symbols used in a range of texts associated with job roles and skills e.g. business cards, job advertisements, application forms etc. Students know the requirements and layout of texts associated with job roles and skills e.g. a job application. Students know the initial sound of a word. Students know key words or symbols e.g. name, address and date of birth on a job application. Students know how to order visual steps to support them to complete a task. | Students know chronological language e.g. first, then, next, finally Students know at least 7 key workplace words or phrases associated with the job application process e.g. apply, online, in writing, application form, job description, person specification, closing date Students know at least 7 key workplace words or phrases associated with the interview process e.g. candidate, reception, office, assistant, toilets, staff room, photocopier etc Students know how to segment and blend words. Students know root words in words containing common suffixes and prefixes. Students know to use the context of the writing to help them make sense of a text. Students know common exception words. | Students know the language used in job advertisements. Students know the language used in the job application process. Students know the language used in the interview process. Students know how to respond to at least 10 key workplace words or phrases associated with the interview process e.g. candidate, reception, office, assistant, toilets, staff room, photocopier etc | Students know of the need to read clearly and loudly when reading out job advertisements and other texts. Students know the importance of variation of pace and tone when reading. Students know he typical structure and phrasing in a job advertisement or other text. Students know the key language used in job advertisements or other related texts. Students know the key features of presentation in a job advertisement or other related texts Students know that their opinion should be supported by the text or other facts and reasons. |
| Subject specific skills | Students are able to choose a book or brochure from a given selection. | Students are able to use simple terms to describe the meaning of at least 5 key words from the job application process e.g. advertisement, | Students are able to sequence 5 instructions to explain the steps in applying for a job or attending an interview. | Students are able to read and extract information from job advertisements. Students are able to read and extract information | Students are able to read clearly and at good pace when reading job advertisements and other texts. |

Students are able to handle a book or brochure with care.

Students are able to turn the pages of a book or brochure one page at a time starting from the front cover.

Students are able to follow a text from left to right and from top to bottom of a column or page and read the symbols or words.

Students are able to read at least 20 familiar symbols and/or words used to describe themselves or key characteristics of job roles and skills

Students are able to identify objects of reference associated with people, jobs or skills and match the object to the correct word or symbol.

Students are able to read and extract one piece of information from a range of information texts associated with job roles and skills e.g. job advert, person specification etc.

job description, person specification, essential and desirable criteria, experience, skills etc

Students are able to use simple terms to describe the meaning of at least 5 key signs in the workplace e.g.
Staffroom, Toilets, Reception, Emergency Exit, Store room etc

Students are able to answer simple comprehension questions based on a range of texts consisting of or supported by symbols e.g. business cards, job advertisements, application forms etc.

Students are able to communicate to a member of staff what words or symbols that they have read.

Students are able to use what they have read to support them in completing the next steps in a task e.g. writing their address in a job application.

Students are able to use the initial sound of a word to help them to identify the word and or symbol when reading in a variety of contexts.

Students are able to sequence a simple set of visual and

Students are able to correctly use chronological language e.g. first, then, next, finally.

Students are able to read at least 7 key workplace words or phrases associated with the job application process e.g. apply, online, in writing, application form, job description, person specification, closing date.

Students are able to read at least 7 key workplace words or phrases associated with the interview process e.g. candidate, reception, office, assistant, toilets, staff room, photocopier etc.

Students are able to apply phonic knowledge and skills to decode words.

Students are able to read common exception words.

Students are able to use the context to help them to read unfamiliar words.

Students are able to locate key information in a job advertisement, job description or person specification.

from job descriptions and person specifications.

Students are able to read and extract information from interview offers and instructions.

Students are able to identify what is needed to respond to a job advertisement.

Students are able to identify what is required to apply for a job.

Students are able to extract the details from an interview offer.

Students are able to read at least 10 key workplace words or phrases associated with the interview process e.g. candidate, reception, office, assistant, toilets, staff room, photocopier etc.

Students are able to use familiar words and root words to read longer words, in addition to using phonic knowledge and context.

Students are able to locate the key points in at least two job advertisements, job descriptions or person specifications.

Students are able to vary the tone at appropriate points when reading out a job advertisement or other texts.

Students are able to identify key structures in a job advertisement or other text that helps make the meaning clear.

Students are able to identify key language in a job advertisement or other text that helps make the meaning clear.

Students are able to identify key features of presentation in a job advertisement or other text that helps make the meaning clear.

Students are able to refer to the relevant part of a text to justify their opinion about it.

Students are able to make reference to general facts and reasons to justify their opinion about a job advertisement or other text.

Students are able to identify facts contained within a job advertisement or other related text.

Students are able to identify opinions contained within a job advertisement or other related text.

| | | written instructions e.g. complete, name, address and date of birth on a job application. Students are able to sequence visual steps to support them to complete a task. | | Students are able to identify the differences between two job advertisements, or person specification | |
|-------------------------|--|---|--|---|--|
| | OU WTE1 | OU Entry Level 1 | OU Entry Level 2 | OU Entry Level 3 | OU Level 1 |
| Key Learning | | identifying and describing job | | | |
| Subject | Students know how to make | Students know the initial | Students know the key words | Students know the layout | Students know the |
| specific knowledge | straight marks in sensory material. | letter or grapheme of a word related to people and jobs. | used to describe people, skills, abilities and tasks. | of a job advertisement or application, a CV or personal statement. | vocabulary relevant to job roles, people's skills, characteristics and their |
| | Students know how to make circular marks in sensory material. | Students know how to form the initial letter or grapheme of a word related to people | Students know how to correctly punctuate sentences with full stops and | Students know what detail and features to include in | experience. Students know they need |
| | Students know how to make straight marks with a pen | and jobs. Students know what an | capital letters. Students know how to | a job advertisement, job application, a CV or personal statement. | to read, check and revise their writing. |
| | or pencil. | adjective is. | segment and blend words. | Students know a range of | Students know how to form the use the present, |
| | Students know how to form common shapes or letters. | Students know some key adjectives used to describe people and jobs. | Students know root words in words containing common suffixes and prefixes. | familiar words and root words when used in compound words or with | past and future tense of regular and irregular verbs. |
| | Students know simple colours. | Students know the words and symbols used to describe some | Students know how to spell some common exception | prefixes and suffixes | Students know how to spell most common tricky |
| | Students know certain people and jobs. | key tasks and job roles. Students know the key | words. Students know chronological | | words. Students know how to use |
| | Students know with words used to describe themselves, other people and jobs. | elements required in applying for a job or attending an interview. | language used to describe the past and the future. | | Microsoft Word and Microsoft Publisher without support. |
| Subject specific skills | Students are able to make straight marks in sensory material. | Students are able to write the initial letter or grapheme of a word related to people and jobs. | Students are able to use simple words and phrases to describe themselves and others. | Students are able to identify where to place different pieces of information for a job advertisement. | Students are able to select vocabulary relevant to job roles, people's skills, characteristics and their experience. |

Students are able to make circular marks in sensory material.

Students are able to make straight marks with a pen or pencil.

Students are able to make circular marks in sensory material.

Students are able to trace or overwrite 3 recognisable shapes or letters when writing about themselves, jobs or person characteristics.

Students are able to copy 3 recognisable shapes or letters when writing about themselves, jobs or person characteristics.

Students are able to match the background colours of up to 4 words or symbols to create simple sentences about themselves and jobs.

Students are able to select pictures or symbols to describe an image related to people and jobs.

Students are able to select pictures or symbols to write a simple text about themselves or jobs.

Students are able to select pictures or symbols to add detail to their writing related to people and jobs.

Students are able to select descriptive words to add detail to their writing related to people and jobs.

Students are able to use pictures and symbols to describe what jobs people are doing in images of people at work.

Students are able to use words to describe what jobs people are doing in images of people at work.

Students are able to select symbols to sequence information into a full sentence.

Students are able to select symbols to sequence information into a full sentence.

Students are able to select words to sequence information into a full sentence.

Students are able to order a set of images to describe how to apply for a job or attend an interview.

Students are able to use words or symbols to describe

Students are able to use simple words and phrases to describe their skills and abilities in a job application or interview.

Students are able to use simple words and phrases to describe the tasks that they have carried out to describe their relevant experience in a job application or interview.

Students are able to use full sentences to write a short text describing themselves or others.

Students are able to use full sentences to write a short text describing their skills and abilities in a job application or interview.

Students are able to use full sentences to write a short text describing the tasks that they have carried out to describe their relevant experience in a job application or interview.

Students are able to correctly punctuate sentences with full stops and capital letters.

Students are able to apply phonic knowledge and skills in their writing.

Students are able to identify where to place different pieces of information for a job application.

Students are able to identify where to place different pieces of information for a CV.

Students are able to identify where to place different pieces of information for a personal statement.

Students are able to include the appropriate detail and features to write a job advertisement.

Students are able to include the appropriate details and features and write a job application.

Students are able to include the appropriate detail and features to write a CV.

Students are able to include the appropriate detail and features to write a personal statement.

Students are able to use familiar words and root words to write longer

Students are able to revise and edit the spelling, grammar and sentence structure in their writing.

Students are able to correctly use the present tense to describe people's skills, personality and characteristics and people's job roles.

Students are able to correctly use the past tense to describe their past achievements.

Students are able to correctly use the future tense to describe their aspirations.

Students are able to correctly spell most common tricky words.

Students are able to consistently apply phonic knowledge and skills when writing unfamiliar words.

Students are able to create and write a document on Microsoft Word without support.

Students are able to create and write a document on Microsoft Publisher without support.

| | Students are able to select | each image in instructions on | Students are able to use | words, in addition to using | |
|---------|-----------------------------|-------------------------------|--|-----------------------------|--|
| | words to describe an image | how to apply for a job or | familiar root words in words | phonic knowledge and | |
| | related to people and jobs. | attend an interview. | containing common suffixes | context. | |
| | | | and prefixes. | | |
| | Students are able to select | | | | |
| | words to write a simple | | Students are able to | | |
| | text about themselves or | | correctly spell some common | | |
| | jobs. | | tricky words | | |
| | | | | | |
| | | | Students are able to | | |
| | | | correctly use chronological | | |
| | | | language when describing | | |
| | | | their past experience and | | |
| | | | the future aspirations. | | |
| Daysand | Chalanta illino | | language when describing their past experience and the future aspirations. | | |

Personal development

Reasoning - Students will predict and extract information from a range of sources.

Evaluation - Students will express their own views and preferences against agreed criteria to evaluate their own work and the work of others.

Empathy - Writing, reading and listening to others will help students to understand what others might be thinking or feeling in a particular situation.

Social skills - When working collaboratively, students will listen to and respect other people's ideas. They will undertake a variety of roles in group contexts.

Communication - Students will develop their ability to discuss as they work collaboratively in paired, group and whole-class contexts. They will communicate outcomes orally, in writing and through ICT when appropriate.

Suggested activities

Students describe themselves, others and famous people- describe and identify staff, famous people. Play Guess Who
Students identify and match roles and responsibilities of people in school and wider community e.g. Andy Burnham, Boris Johnson, the Queen
Students create their companies and their company profiles, create jobs and requirements e.g. Willy Wonka wanting staff for chocolate factory
Students create profile of their perfect teacher, create profile of perfect student/ employee

Online resources

https://northridge.manchester.sch.uk/ https://www.manchester.gov.uk/ https://nationalcareers.service.gov.uk/

Evidencing Work

All task, planning and evidence sheets need to be levelled in accordance with the rubric, students need to self-assess and work needs to be put in student books/ folders with next steps identified

Audio and video performances need to be recorded and formatted within Book Creator.

Reading examination at end of Key Stage

Speaking and writing assessment at the end of the unit